

I am completely opposed to any further consolidation of station ownership. If anything, the rules should be changed to forbid increased corporate ownership not expand it. All the rule change will do is enrich corporate managers at the expense of the public.